NARRATIVE:

Monarrez, a documented member of the Michigan Avenue, Sureno gang, has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 19. His convictions include assault with a firearm on person, possession narcotic controlled substance, felon/ addict in possession of a firearm, vehicle theft, purchase cocaine base for sale, possession of controlled substance while armed, evading police: disregard for safety, false identification to peace officer, possession of controlled substance while in prison, and fugitive from justice. Monarrez has served multiple state prison terms the longest a 3 year term for possessing controlled substance while in prison. Monarrez was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on June 26th, 2013. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in November 2013 after Monarrez absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Monarrez qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for possession of controlled substance in prison falls under the guidelines for PRCS under the California penal code. His prior criminal history, gang affiliation, and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
